Dear Mrs Edwards:

Thanks so much for your last letter. I have finally prepared the Chart with all the Ancestors in Surry that have been uncovered so far. Will you would take it from there!

One thing perhaps you can help me
on. One of your notes said:

"Thomas Binns married Margaret
Jones, dtr of Matthew Jones. M Jones
est. appraised 12/14/1752 Southampton.
Stamp OB 1, P 199.

See Sale of Wight OB 6, P 500
Thos Binns 2nd wife whose mother was Eliz. Crawley" Can you elaborate?

My notes show

1. Thos Binns (d 1765) oral will - no names. Eliz Binns named Exec. by Court 6/10/1765
2. 1771 Eliz Binns Sdr to Eliz., Priscilla
& Martha Binns.

3. Robt Hunnicutt, Nancy (ann) his wife, Sarah Binns + Jenny (Jane) Binns complainants vs. Eliz Binns, Exec. Thos Binns, dec'd, Martha, Eliz + Priscilla Binns. Court ruled that the Est devised to the Defendant, Eliz Binns by her mother, Eliz. Crawley, dec'd, is to survive to her and not be considered a part of her husband's estate "

4. Eliz Binns, widow of Thos, relinquished her rights under her husband's will

In other words Father & Son married
Half-sisters!

Can you add to this?

Robt Hunnicutt Jr. (~~born~~ died 1814) was born about 1762, as he discharged his gdn, brother John, in 1783. So, he was only 9 years old in 1771 when his father (Robt d 1778) sued ~~his~~ ~~his~~ Eliz Binns & incidentally his future dtr-in-law. This seems to prove the Binns's set-up. Do you agree?

as to Crawley -

Hannah Crawley signed Eliz Binns
m Bond to Robert Hunnicutt in 1783.

CHARLES BARHAM, JR.
POST OFFICE BOX 831

Eliz Binns' will 1784, makes a bequest to sister Hannah Crawley.

In 1725, Daniel D. C. Crawley & wife
Eliz., of Roanoke, N. C. deeded land in Surry to John Baird. This must have been a store because from 1715 to 1715 Crawley sued many people, and after this last date, Baird did likewise.
Now, Eliz. Crawley who m. Mrs Binns after 1752, must have been a dtr. of Daniel & Eliz Crawley who deeded land to Baird, yet the Crauleys were living in N. C. Do you have any idea how to unravel this? I don't know how to proceed with N. C. or even Isle of Wight! Wish you would undertake it if your situation allows.

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

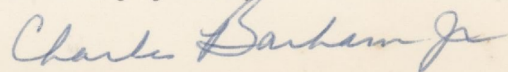

Your notes have been of immense help to me, especially on the Lane line. I am sending you a copy of mine for your files, together with your own. As soon as I can arrange to have the notes on the other lines typed will also send them.

Having spent quite a bit of time copying records recently, I know how difficult a job it is, and how time consuming as well. Hence, I don't feel right about taking your notes on a "loan basis" since genealogy is your work. I hope, then you will accept the enclosed check in the same spirit in which it is sent. I think I got a bargain!

As soon as I get a chance to work out a chart, I'll do so and send it to you, but must get my notes copied first. Perhaps, you can then help me find a few more names.

I trust your husband is doing as well as can be expected. You certainly have my deepest sympathy.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

Thanks a lot for the latest batch of wills. I went over these carefully yesterday and made notes on the ones that pertain to my lines. You certainly are making speed towards publishing the book from 1750 to 1800 and, I, for one, will be mighty glad to be able to purchase a copy when it is ready.

I believe (and, certainly hope) that you had an error in one will. The will of Randolph Price: you say "What I am due to inherit from the estate of my grandfather Robt. Hunnicutt". At least, that is the way I noted it but I sent the wills back last night so may be mistaken.

My Hunnicutt notes have this will as follows: Son David.....~~also what~~ Unborn child
"added to the sum son David shall inherit of his Grandfather Robert Hunnicutt's estate".

Randolph Price married Rebecca Hunnicutt 1774 (Marriage Bond)
Evidently, Rebecca died in childbirth because in 1777 there is another Marriage Bond between Randolph Price and Lucy Hamlin. Hence, Robert Hunnicutt must be the father of Rebecca Hunnicutt and the grandfather of David Price (and not Randolph Price. In fact, Robert Hunnicutt, in his will dated 19 June, 1778, probated 28 July, 1778, makes a bequest of "negro girl Charlotte, and 350 Pounds cash now in the Loan Office at Williamsburg" to Grandson David Price. Randolph Price's will was written 18 Oct., 1778, or less than 3 months after his father-in-law's will was probated.

Randolph seemed a young man. I wonder if he was wounded in the Revolution? He died only a month after his will was written.

How are the Tith lists progressing? Wish you would publish them in the form of a book!

Charles Barbours

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

Again, many thanks for the last batch of wills. I hope to concentrate on them tonite and return them to you tomorrow. Glad you are making such fine progress towards getting the book out.

I haven't heard a word from Mrs. Davis since I wrote her. Will call, or see her, on my next trip to Surry, which now seems scheduled for no earlier than Jan 15th.

What have you done about the Tith lists? I have no lists for 1671/2 (I don't believe they were published these years?) No lists for 1690/1/2/3; 1695/96/97; 1699/1700/01/02/03 I think I lacked one page of Mrs. Savedges' for the years 1683, 1688/9. Unless you can help me fill in these gaps by publishing the complete lists, I hope to copy several of the lists on my next visit. I find the tithables very valuable. Were any lists published in IOW?

I certainly like your suggestion about the map and will try and act on it. When you prove a connection by means of land there can be no arguing that it's wrong!

Hope your holidays season will be as nice as possible under the difficult circumstances that confront you.

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

Thought you might be interested in the enclosed, and possibly be able to add something to it. Certainly hope so.

You said you would lend me any Southampton wills pending the publication of your new book. Of course, I have Vol. 1, but would like the wills of the following families after 1775:

- ✓ Bailey
- ✓ Clark
- ✓ Crafford
- ✓ Davis
- ✓ Drew
- ✓ Harris
- ✓ Hart
- ✓ Holt
- ✓ Judkins
- ✓ Lancaster
- ✓ Newsum
- ✓ Phillips
- ✓ Pretlow
- ✓ Ruffin
- ✓ Taylor
- ✓ Thorpe
- ✓ Waller
- ✓ Warren

This seem to be the principal families that tie in with my various lines.

How are you progressing with the tith lists?

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

I am enclosing the check we discussed as a retainer. Of course, I understand that the time you can devote to doing research for me is extremely limited, but, on the other hand, I find it increasingly difficult to get to Surry. I hate to impose on Mrs. Savedge by asking her to copy records for me since she won't accept any compensation for doing so. I'll be satisfied with whatever you find time to do.

I'm convinced that any additional findings on my line will have to come thru deeds and Order Book entries. I believe the best approach is to completely comb these records for the many deeds and entries involving the following families:

Barham	Adams	Newsum	Newitt
Bennett		Pasmore
Binns	Baird	Peter
Bailey	Bruton	Pettway
Bell		Phillips
Clark		Piland
Crafford	Crawley	Pitt

I have deeds from ^{some} many of these families and ^{am sending} ~~will send~~ you the dates of them. In briefing the others, it would seem only the barest description is necessary, but you know more about that than I do.

In addition to the enclosed list of deed I have briefed book 1 (1652-72) thru the L's. I believe a thorough reading of all deeds of the enclosed people will turn up proof of several connections. It will be a long, tough job, but I'm convinced the results will make the cost worthwhile. If you will undertake it I'll be grateful.

But, first of all, I hope you will finish the Tith lists. I may need them at any time.

Omitted from Mrs. Davis' book:

Will of Robt Crafford, prob 19 Jan, 1715
" " James Mason " 13 Sept., 1702

Errors:

Margaret Hunnicutt's will (prob. 16 July 1718)
She omits "Ann, the wife of Augustin Hunnicutt 1 brass kettle about 3 gallons & a pair of Sheats, and to her daughter Martha 1 ring with a stone in it"
She has "to Martha daughter of my son Augustine, and her daughter Martha a bequest". This is wrong. (This would make the 2nd Martha a great-granddaughter) Margaret Hunnicutt married Augustine after July 3, 1677, when the estate of her previous husband, John Cooper, was settled. Her will was dated 23 August 1717, so she had been married approximately 40 years, or much too soon, it seems, to be a great grandma)

Thos Edwards' will, probated 2 March 1702:
She omits "I give and bequeath unto my son Newitt one cow of Five or Six yeares old and the third Childe borne alive to my Negro Woman Moll"

I wish I knew what other errors the book contains. I suppose I really should check all her wills that I am depending on.

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

Thanks so much for your last letter and the Tith lists. I have been trying to shape-up my Edwards' notes before answering, so that I could enclose a copy. When you have time, wish you would look them over and offer any suggestions, or criticisms that occur to you.

In your Edwards' chart you have Thos. (died 1702) marrying Eliz. Holt. Did you get this from the Holt write-up in Tylers' Quart Vol VII, P 277/82? I can find nothing to substantiate this except that in her will probated 20 Nov. 1713, Eliz. Holt makes a bequest of a debt to Thos. Edwards. She names no Edwards' grdchildren, but does say Grd-dtr Mary Seward, Dtr-in-law Frances Holt, Sons Thos and Wm Holt, and dtrs Jane Hancock and Lucy Mountford. As you can see from the enclosed notes, I feel that this Thos Edwards' wife was Elizabeth Newitt, daughter of Wm Newitt and his wife, Elizabeth Jones (dtr of Fulke Jones) I think Thos Edwards' will, and the Newitt wills, seem to prove this. (By the way, Mrs. Davis, in her book, omits Newitt Edwards as a son of Thos, died 1702, but his will names him.)

I think Wm Edwards, died 1697 and Thomas Edwards, died 1702/ were prior to 1691, were brothers, both sons of Wm Edwards, died 1670, whose wife married (2nd) Wm Richardson. Thos Edwards is shown as a tithable for several years on Hogg Island prior to 1700. (1690) When this Thos died (the Hogg Island one), the other Thomas (son of Wm, died 1697) complained that Wm Harris was detaining the orphan of Thomas Edwards, deceased, of Hogg Island who by his will was left to me.

Following my assumptions, the Edwards' line would go like this:

*will send later - Have to go out on a hurry
call.
Did you send all tithable you have? If so will be glad to check them against my list. Over*

Hope you enjoy the most ham. It's like sending Coals to Newcastle, sending a ham to Smithfield! - but thought you might like one.

Sorry I didn't get to finish

Best wishes

In your Edwards' chart you have Thos. (died 1702) marrying Eliz.

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

Thanks so much for your last letter, and also for the one from Mr. Johnston. I'm planning on writing him today.

Will you do one thing for me-check the note "^{Richardson}Wm ~~Edwards~~ married Sarah, relict of Wm Edwards". I have this listed as Page 223, Guardian Book, Isle of Wight(?) Why it should be in the Guardian Book, I do not know, hence omitted that in my Edwards' notes sent you and Mrs. Savedge. I had a letter from Mrs. S. today, saying she has searched everywhere in the Surry records for a confirmation of this, but had found none. I am beginning to wonder if this could be the Wm Edwards from Surry. I am rather sure this note came from your Edwards' file. I did find where ALEX Richardson and THOS. Edwards witnessed the will of Amaro Abords, in Surry, in 1677 and this will makes a bequest to Timothy "Isreill" (Exell?). Thos Edwards also witnessed the will of Henry Clarke Sr in 1676, and he made a bequest to Daughter Eliz. Essell.

I would certainly like to borrow your Seward file as I am convinced that the Seward-Barhams-Clarks-and Edwards, and possibly the Binns and Hunnicutts intermarried. I have a lot of Seward notes but they are far from complete.

Thanks, too, for sending Mr. Johnston's address. I hope to strike up a correspondence with him. I feel one can't get too many notes, or pieces of the puzzles.

I hope you are able to get to Surry and to uncover something on Elizabeth Seward, the widow who married Thos Edwards.

Best regards,

CB

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

Thanks so much for your note and the literature about your publications. I am enclosing my check for a copy of WILLS AND ADMINISTRATIONS OF SOUTH-AMPTON COUNTY. I would also like a copy of the Marriage Bonds but fail to see this on the list, so perhaps it is out of circulation.

I found my missing link while in Surry, but if I had not your letter would have put me on the right track. I was looking for the maiden name of my great grandmother, and with the assistance of Mrs. Savedge, found it. SALLY LANE.... "Sally Barham, called daughter by Mary Lane". Granddaughter Mary Ann Barham was the clincher, plus many other entanglements that came to light.

Have no idea the amount this check should be made for but we can adjust later when you send the 3rd Volume.

I am sorry hear that your trouble have worsened. Hope you will soon pull out of it.

You mentioned the Wilkinson.

Don't worry about the family as I have a family bible with all the family information back to Edinburg, Scotland around 1800. I am only interested in the family after they came to America.

Father always felt that the Hummuth & Coopers intermarried since his Grandmother

Anne Cooke Hunnicutt and Joseph Barham, but could never prove it. She ^{Anne Cooke H} had a twin brother name Augustine Willis Hunnicutt. An Augustine Willis and Ann Heath widow - whether she was a Cooke, I don't know. Personally, I think, & only think that Root Hunnicutt & Eliza Benno, his wife, named their son Ann Cooke H & son Augustine Willis because they were close neighbors & friends. I can find no other connection.
After I whip my notes in shape & get them typed will send you copies, together with names of those I consider likely suspects.

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

Thanks a lot for your nice letter of May 12th.
I appreciate you writing Mrs. Knorr about the book, and also sending me the name of Mr. Watson in Norfolk.

I am wondering if you would have the time and inclination to do a little research into the feminine part of the Barham line for me? According to Dr. Holtzclaw (Articles on the Newsom Family), Robert Barham (about) 1700 married Elizabeth Clark, daughter of John Clark and Mary Flake.

John Barham, says Dr. Holtzclaw, married Elizabeth Edwards, daughter of Thomas Edwards and Elizabeth Newsom. Of course, he has traced the Newsom line. However, in looking over the Surry Wills, I bumped into the will of Wm Gray, 1719, ~~in~~ which ~~it~~ said: "to Son William land where Thomas Cockerham lived", and mentions Granddaughter Elizabeth Clark. As John Barham's oldest son must have been born about 1740/45, the timing seems right, and I am wondering if this isn't the same Elizabeth Clark. If so, and she is Granddaughter to Wm Gray, how can she be the daughter of Sarah Newsom?

I would also like to have the Lane line traced...at least to know the maiden name of Sally's mother..And, the Hunnicutt. My great grandmother was Ann Cocke Hunnicutt, daughter of Robert B. Hunnicutt, senr., and Elizabeth Binns. I have a lot of Hunnicutt notes but haven't had time to work on them. I can tell, though, that they will be difficult to straighten out since there were so many Hunnicutts!

Would like any suggestions you might care to make.

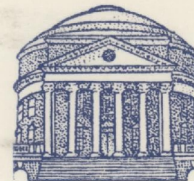

Cordially yours,

Charles Barham Jr

Now for a little Crawley-Binns dope.

1768, Sept. 20th-"Ordered that Carter Crafford, James Baird, Wm Salter audit the estate of Thos. Binns (P 166)

In 1725, Daniel E. C. Crawley, of Roanoke, N. C. sold land to John Baird of Prince George. The land was situated in Surry. Now, of course, Thos Binns, above, who died in 1765, was married(2ndly) to Elizabeth Crawley.

Prior to the sale in 1725 from Crawley to Baird, Crawley had numerous lawsuits in Surry, leading me to believe he operated a store. After the sale, Baird had lots of suits for debt.

David Crawley made his will in PGeo in 1725, mentioning wife, Tabitha, Sons George, Wm and David. Son Wm was left 320 A in "the province of North Carolina on the north side of Roanoke River." Incidentally, the will leaves land to Nath. Harrison Esq. of Surry, "towards the payment of my debts due him, and if the said Harrison is not therewith content for the payment of the said debt I will and bequeath so much of my hoggs and cattle that is at Roanoke, as he shall think fit therewith to take to answer the debt."

I'm convinced that there is a tie-up between the Bairds and Crawleys. It seems odd to me that James Baird should audit the estate of Thos Binns, whose wife was Eliz. Crawley unless there is one. I can find nothing lese in Surry about any Bairds, so he was probably from Prince George, and, of course, those records are in bad shape.

I have typed personally all my notes on the Barhams, Binns, Edwards, Hunnicutts and Lanes. My secretary will copy them as soon as she gets time and I will send you copies. I am now going over all notes and making a list of questions that need further research. Maybe it will all shape up some day!

We enjoyed seeing you at OAK Forrest on your visit to Charlottesville. I'm sorry your trip wasn't more fruitful. Hope things will work out for the best with you.

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

Thanks so much for your letter and notes. I am returning the latter with this letter. Several of them I didn't have, and of course, greatly appreciate you sending them to me.

If I said that there was a connection between the Lancasters and Hunnicutts, I was mixed-up. I meant to say the Lancasters and Lanes. Here they are:

1744- Thomas Lane and Joseph Lancaster securities for Eliz. Lancaster, widow of Samuel Lancaster, who was granted adm. of her husband's Est. Jan 15. (Surry) Samuel Lancaster's Inv. was returned by Robert Hart, Charles Holt, Thos Bell.

1746. Thos Lane and Jos. Lancaster petition the court-in effect-saying that because of ill management, Eliz. is dissipating the est., and wish to be relieved as securities.
Note: I cannot find any determination of the suit.

1752 Deed of gift from Jno Cox, of Surry, to John Cox, the Younger and Mary Lancaster, for natural love and affection. Feb. 10. Signed John Cocks.
Wit: Nicholas Thompson, Joseph Hart, Thos. Lane

1754 In the suit depending in Chancery between Mary Cox, wife of John Cox, Joseph Lancaster, John Cox Jr., and Wm Cox, it is ordered that Thos Lane be made a defendant. (OB 1753/57, P 64)

1752 Thos Lane guardian to William Lancaster. (Discharged in Sept., 1753)

1756 Thos Lane and Joseph Lancaster Vs John Moring.

Note: Sam'l Lancaster died in 1744 without a will. Robt. Lancaster's will, D 1738, P 1739, mentions sons Samuel, Joseph & Wm., Dtrs Ann, Elizabeth & Mary. Mary Lancaster was granted Adm. of will.

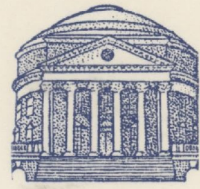

Thos. Lane's will, 1770, wife, Mary. (It was the dtr of this Thos. Lane, Sally, who married Joseph Barham) Question: Did Thomas Lane marry either wife, Mary Lancaster, or, Dtr. Mary?

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

I spent Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday in Surry, copying a lot of wills of related families, made after 1750. Started to telephone you but thought it might simply add to your other worries, and I'm sure you have plenty of them.

It was nice to have your card waiting when I got home. I'm looking forward to receiving the tithables, which, I'm convinced will be a big help.

It begins to look as if I have a lot of work to do in Southampton. Do you think I should wait for your book or employ someone there to brief the wills for me? If the book is certain to be published before Christmas, I prefer to wait. It will, of course, be cheaper, and your wills more accurate.

I'm enclosing a lead I thought would interest you. I'm trying to prove that my Thomas Edwards, who married Eliz. Newsum, was the son of Eliz. Newett. Am working on deeds.

Thanks a lot for your letter of July 20th.

"We regret that there will be a short delay in shipping the following:

Chapman's Isle of Wight Wills and Administrations. This item is

The reason I ordered from Southern Book Company was that I understood that you did not have any more copies. If I am in error in this I would very these. Please let me know in time to advise the Southern Book Company to cancel my order if you can supply me with Isle of Wight Wills and Adm.

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

Thanks so much for your Davis file and also your nice letter. I am genuinely distressed that you returned my check. I honestly feel that all the help you have given me has been worth much more than what I have been able to give you in return. Perhaps I am trying to cover too many families but they all seem to have inter-married; I like to prove that something isn't true before I believe that the opposite is true!

Please return the tithables to me and not Mrs. Savedge. Remember in our conversation I asked you not to let her know I had lent them to you? She is touchy as you undoubtedly know. I thought our agreement was that you would use my lists to fill in yours and let me have one complete one from the two. I would like to have the list as soon as possible as I find I constantly want to refer to it.

I'm working on the Clarke-Flake connection. The link seems to be, according to Mr. Boddy: "On Oct. 25, 1670 Robert Flake made a deed of gift of a mare foal to his daughter Mary Clark wife of John Clark in Isle of Wight Co. D. & W. 1661-1719, Vol 2., P 89". I wonder if you could possibly copy this for me exactly as it is in the records. Dr. Holtzclaw, in his Newsum articles, says that John Clark, father-in-law of Robert Barham, is probably identical with a John Clark, b. 1652, son of Richard Clark of Surry, who receipted William Newsum for his estate May 6, 1673. If this is true John Clark was born circa 1652, and so couldn't have been over 18 years of age when Flake deeded the mare to his daughter, Clark's wife. I have a hunch that we can prove which Clark married Mary Flake by real estate as both the Clarks and Flakes owned quite a lot of it and undoubtedly Flake or Clark Sr. must have deeded the young couple a tract.

Hope your situation improves at home. You must be under a terrible mental strain and I wish that I could offer more than sympathy.

Cordially,

Charles Barham Jr

PS Am returning the check in the hope that you will destroy it. I'll be happy with our arrangement as I've already been well repaid.

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

Thanks so much for your last letter and also the abstracts of the Surry wills. As soon as I have had a chance to thoroughly comb these and make the necessary notes, will immediately send them back.

Acting on your suggestion I wrote Mrs. Davis today about the Order Books. Doubt if I will hear from her but this might at least pave the way for a telephone call on my next trip to Surry.

I am delighted that you decided to accept the check, but please don't try and do too much for me when you shouldn't. I have so many notes now, that it will take me months to go over them as I should. I would like to have the Tith lists as soon as possible but let the wills go untill you have the time you need. On my next trip to Surry, I hope to do two things: (1) check and see if there are any wills affecting my line that Mrs. Davis overlooked (other than the ones I have already found) (2) Work on deeds.

Would certainly like to see your Clark file. It seems certain that my ancestor, John Clark, married Mary Flake, but what remains to be proved was which John Clark. One John Clark receipted Wm Newsum in 1673 for the estate left him by his father, Richard Clark. As he was married to Mary Flake by 1670, this means, if he was THE John Clark that he was only 18 when married. The other John Clark seemed to live in IOW and was close to the ~~Flakes~~ Flakes. Or, perhaps, the IOW John later moved to Surry and Newsum was his Guardain. The Clarks are the reason I want the Tith lists to see if they will help.

Cordially,

CB

Check enclosed for IOW marriages. Thanks a lot.

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

It was mighty nice to hear from you again and to learn that you are back at work on your 2nd Southampton book. Sorry that the Court House position didn't pan out but it would seem to me that you should stay busy with your genealogical work, and certainly that will be more fun.

On my last trip to Surry I suggested to Mrs. Savedge that she publish the Tithables in book form. I have them completed, and we have started correcting the mistakes, and proof-reading each year. She demurred, saying they couldn't possibly all be correct since it is impossible to read all the names. I offered to defray the expense and give all proceeds after recouping the cost of printing. I believe such a book would be invaluable- don't you? If she won't agree after I ask her again, I wonder if you would be interested? She is so peculiar about the records, wanting to keep them secret, that I can't understand her. It seems to me they should be public. I have done a lot of work on them and when you go over them year by year, you can find lots of mistakes, and I feel we can get them as right as it is humanly possible to do; and, if she can't read the books no-one else can! I'll talk to her again and let you know what she says.

I feel that I am making definite progress on the records by reading the early books page by page. Am almost thru OB 2. Have the first three generations of the Hunnicutts right, I think, (except for the last name of Augustine 3rd's wife). What got me off wrong was the fact that the article "The Hunnicutts of Prince George" was all wrong. The author of that says that Robt(1) H. is the son of John, and it just aint so. I think this will help explain all the Quakerisms in the Hunnicutt-Bailey-Pretlow ensemble, since this Robt was a Quaker. He is definitely the son of Augustine(1), shown first as a tithable in 1689 with the "Wido Monck", also Augustine(1)'s widow. In 1692 he is with Augustine(2), his brother. Also, the same article omits Thos Hunnicutt, who was John's son. Evidently, Mr. Cabell didn't study the tith lists.

Please don't say anything to Mrs. Savedge about my suggestion on the book. Let me tackle her first.

Will be looking forward to the new Southampton material.
